

SOLAR STREET LIGHT MAINTENANCE

Our college campus has been installed with solar street light with automatic switching system which is maintained by electrical maintenance associated with energy club. During the day time the batteries get charged with the help of solar panel and the stored power is used at the night time. This is a sequential process.

